Cllr Steve Count March	It is with great sadness that we all heard the news the reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, had come to an end with her passing away. A monarch unsurpassed throughout history for her dedication to her people, leaves us with a sense of something missing from our daily lives. My condolences and sympathy go to all of her family as well. We have lost our Queen, but must remember she was also a mother, with an extended family, a person, an individual known to and loved by them who will be more personally affected by her departure. May your Majesty rest in peace; Long live the King. Sincere condolences
